

Syndicat National du Commerce Extérieur des produits congelés et surgelés (France)

- 69 members representing approximately 6 billion €uros in turnover and around 7,700 direct jobs
- Type of products: mainly frozen fishery products (raw or processed), and incidentally fresh and canned products
- Type of companies:
 - trading only
 - food industrials
 - customs representatives
 - packaging operators
 - analytical laboratories

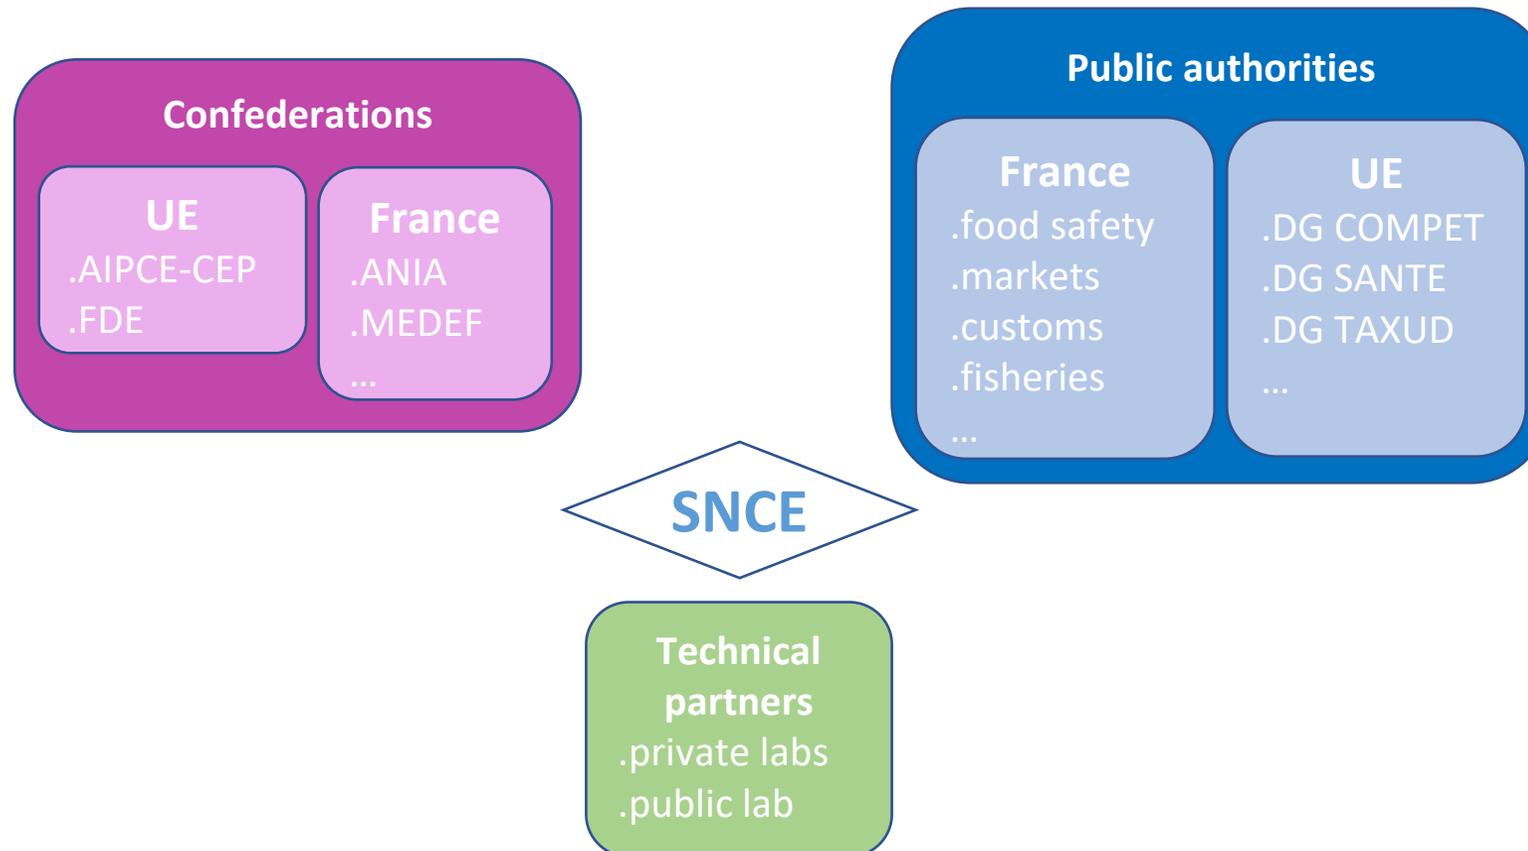

Syndicat National du Commerce Extérieur des produits congelés et surgelés (France)

Missions:

- Representation of the members at national and European level
- Information and advice to the companies regarding the existing and future regulatory framework applicable to their products/operations
- Active working groups:
 - food quality and food safety WG
 - packaging WG
 - food fraud observatory

Syndicat National du Commerce Extérieur des produits congelés et surgelés (France)

- ANIA member: National Association of Food Industries
- AIPCE-CEP member: European federation of importers and processors of aquatic products

- the French are the 4th largest European consumers: about 33.3 kg/capita/year in 2020 (compared to 23.6 kg for the EU in average).
- FR catches + production = approximately 30% of the consumption
- The rest is composed of imported products, sold for direct consumption or as raw materials for the HORECA sector or the food industry.